

ESL on Campuses

VCC offers classes at the Broadway and Downtown campuses. There are part-time and full-time courses in ESL from Literacy to Advanced levels. General courses focus on the four basic language skills: listening, speaking, reading and writing. Intensive classes focus on one or two skills or pronunciation. Classes are scheduled in the morning, afternoon and evening, either 2 or 4 days a week, as well as Fridays and Saturdays.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE LEVELS

English for Academic Purposes College Preparatory English

College Preparatory English courses have been designed for students whose original education was completed in a language other than English.

Credit and non-credit courses are offered to students who are preparing for, or are already taking part in, post secondary studies.

We help students:

- Gain credit for English 12 for entry to BCIT or another college or university
- Upgrade language for undergraduate and graduate studies
- Upgrade skills in academic presentation, writing and reading
- Improve pronunciation and communication skills
