Vol. II - No. 17
December 5, 1975

1) CHRISTMAS PARTY

Remember December 22nd: K.E.C.'s Christmas Party for Pat. We've planned a scrumptious dinner, there will be a no-host bar, and the after-dinner festivities promise fun and surprises.

Friends and spouses are welcome. See the cashier at K.E.C.'s main building if you want to be included. Off-campus people phone Mrs. Moutter, our office manager, at 731-4614, Local 43.

ABSOLUTE DEADLINE: December 15

2) A COMPLIMENT FOR COUNSELLING

Thanks for your help! In my moment of confusion and helplessness I sought out counselling at K.E.C. It sure paid off! I found my direction and now I'm off on my way to Toronto to attend college. The programs are only available there. Thanks to the many nice people and the resource centre at K.E.C. for their concern.

3) FIRST ADDITION

Congrats to David Hislop and wife on the arrival of their first baby - a girl - born December 2. A Queen-size - 10½ lbs!

SECOND ADDITION

Also a baby girl born to the Ken Aitkens on November 27. Little Emily weighed in at 8½ lbs.

5) NOTICE TO ALL FACULTY

Teresa Jaworski, who is teaching English as a second language to students at Lester Pearson College of the Pacific in Esquimalt, would like to know if a family (or two, or three, etc.) would be interested in having one of her students over the Christmas holidays.

For further information, please call the College at (112) 478-5591.

6) 1976 - 1977 CALENDAR

How do you like our present calendar? What improvements will make it more attractive?

What is missing from it?
What should we discard?

Your input is urgently needed.

Give your suggestions, sketches, photographs, quotations, etc. to your Department Head or Co-ordinator by December 12, earlier if possible.

8) CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

A special K.E.C. Christmas Message is available for sending to Agencies and "Friends of the Campus". If you have the names (and addresses) of people to whom you wish to have these messages sent please give them to your Division Chairman by Wednesday, December 10. Please let him know if you wish to have your own name included in the salutation.
