1) NEW FACE IN THE LEARNING CENTRE

The Learning Centre is pleased to welcome David Rand as a tutor in the Math/Science Workshop. David has an extensive background in Physics and Math and has tutoring experience as well. David arrives in time to replace Pati Card who resigned as tutor last Friday. This change should also be noted in your campus directory. When he is not tutoring in Math/Science David teaches Math 041 for College Foundations.

At this early date in the new year, students are already utilizing the Centre for assistance in their course work. Tom Petersen has been posted as part-time special tutor to English 098-099.

A complete schedule for both Math/Science and Humanities Workshops will be issued on Monday or Tuesday, January 19 or 20.

2) ENGLISH LANGUAGE TRAINING INSTRUCTION

The following are excerpts from a letter addressed to the Head Office, Vancouver City College
2750 Oak Street, Vancouver.

"I would like to thank this School and to say that I admired very much the teachers I have had in the beginning, intermediate and advanced classes.....

Because I am a university graduate I can say that I remember very few teachers so keen on their job like my advanced teacher."

A copy of the unexpurgated letter is posted in the faculty lounge.

4) TO FACULTY - ONCE MORE WITH FEELING

1. Please do not enter the Duplicating Room. The operators are swamped with work and needless interruptions only hold up the orders. See the Office Manager or her Assistant for information.
2. We ask again that you conserve on supplies. For example: ball point pens have been disappearing at an ominous rate. We are now completely out of them.
Our records show that an average of 22 per day have been taken from stock.
3. Please do not run more than 10 copies on our new IBM copier. For more copies, submit your order to the Duplicating Department.

8) PHONE BILLS

Our phone bills are astronomical! Long distance calls are made often and, perhaps, indiscriminately. Please help us cut costs by limiting your calls as much as possible, and by writing letters or memos in lieu of phone calls where feasible.

13) FACULTY DAY

Do you want to have a Faculty Day in April? The ones held in previous years were terrific! To run another one, we need an organizing committee. If you have bright ideas to share with your colleagues and are willing to act on such a committee, please contact me in writing, by phone, or by dropping into my office by Wednesday, January 21. Faculty Day is not one of your Professional Development days.

14) POETRY?

We go to a school called King Ed.
Sometimes we wish we were dead.

The work it is tough,

The teachers are rough;

But we go so that we can get fed!

- Written by a Level 4 Manpower student.

14) LIMERICK OF THE WEEK

To: C.W.

A handsome young man was Bobby,
With a moustache exceedingly nobby.
He defensively shaved,
From wild women was saved,
And took up stamps for a hobby.
