

KING EDWARD TIMES

Vol. II - No. 24
January 30, 1976

1) THEFT

Faculty and staff who handle school funds are reminded that College funds are insured. The best course of action is immediate acquiescence in the event of robbery.

A duplicate copy of records of funds should be kept so that there will be accurate evidence of the amount lost.

3) ON DISCUSSION IN SMALL GROUPS

One of the learning experiences most commonly used by instructors at King Edward Campus, in all three divisions, is provided by "Small Group Discussions". Since a small group may be up to twenty in number the involvement of a whole class may come in this category.

You, as a leader of such a group, may be interested in reading Glenn Hardie's article in the November 4, 1975 P.A.C.E. Newsletter, "On Discussion in Small Groups". Copies of the Newsletter are in the Library.

I found it to be very helpful.

12) LIMERICK OF THE WEEK

Ted Anderson, B.E.S.T.
Mary Anderson, E.L.T.

The Andersons, Mary, Ted,
Are neither related nor wed;
But with boxes adjacent,
Ted isn't complacent
For his mail by Mary is read.

CAREERS

WHICH ONE IS FOR YOU?

"CAREERS" - is a series of six noon hour sessions, with individuals who are presently engaged in specific occupations and have demonstrated expertise in their particular field.

The sessions will be informative and informal, and are intended to assist students in making realistic assessments of their career goals and increasing their awareness of how best to pursue those goals.

The sessions will take place Tuesdays - 12:30 - 1:30, beginning February 3 in Room A378. We would appreciate your help in encouraging interested students to attend.
