1) PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT LEAVE

Your attention is directed to article VII, paragraph C.2 (d) (iii) on page 12 of the current Collective Agreement.

"An instructor must submit a formal proposal for professional development leave setting out how the time will be used to his advantage and that of the College. Upon return from such leave the instructor shall account for his activities during such leave.

The application, in writing, is to be made to the Principal, through your Department Head, or if you do not have one, your Division Chairman, on a sheet separate from the green "Request for Leave" form which is also to be submitted.

It should give the proposed dates, outline the proposed activities and it should be handed in at least one month before going on leave.

Within one month of returning from leave you should make a written report to the Principal outlining:

- (a) The purposes of the professional development leave
- (b) The activities undertaken, such as:
  - places visited
  - people consulted
  - books read, etc.
- (c) An evaluation as to how you feel that you have benefited from the leave

- (d) Suggestions as to how the College might benefit from your activities while on leave

If you have already taken your Professional Development Leave and have not yet handed in your account of your activities please do so within a month.

(7) A GRANDMOTHER

This Essay was written by an eight year old youngster in Grade III of a Langley school and read on the C.B.C. radio "Neighbourly News" in December.

A Grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own so she likes other peoples little girls. A Grandfather is a man Grandmother. He goes for walks with the boys and they talk about fishing and tractors and things like that.

Grandmas don't have to do anything except be there. They are old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. It's enough if they drive us to the supermarket where the pretend horse is, and have lots of dimes ready. Or if they take us for a walk they should slow down past things like pretty leaves or caterpillars. They should never say hurry up. Usually they are fat but not too fat to tie kids shoes. They wear glasses and funny underwear and they can take their teeth and gums off.

It's better if they don't typewrite or play cards except with us. They don't have to be smart only answer questions like why dogs hate cats or how come God isn't married. They don't talk baby talk like visitors do because it is hard to understand. When they read to us they don't skip or mind if it is the same story again. Everybody should try to have one, especially if you don't have T.V. because Grandmas are the only grownups who have got time.

8) NOTICE

Your attention is drawn to a letter from Dr. Gilligan to Ron Howard, the architect. Copies of this letter are posted on the Faculty bulletin board.

9) CONDOLENCES

Our sincerest condolences go to Geoff Flack on the recent loss of his mother.

We were also sorry to learn of the sudden passing of Eleanor Strong's husband. He was a great help to Mrs. Strong, of Immigrant Services, in the work that she has done here and elsewhere with our English Language Training students.
