2) READING WORKSHOP - APRIL 29, 30 - MAY 1

An in-depth Reading Workshop will be held by Dr. Walter Powers of Wichita University where he is an Associate Professor and Co-ordinator of the Reading Services Centre's graduate school Programme. A specialist in the field of perception and reading laboratory management, he has published many research reports, reviews and articles. He is author of Optimum Reading Achievement Program, the Rate and Rhythm Program, the P*R*S Program of Vocabulary Development and the Audit Reading Program.

This three-day workshop will be held in Room 101 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Fee for the three-day session is $50 for each person. The college is prepared to meet half the fee for interested instructors. It should be noted that Workshop enrolment is limited.

Application forms and more detailed information are available from Grant Kelly in the Learning Centre.

3) TIME OUT

Tutors Darlene Antonsen, Eric Thiessen and David Rand will be "on vacation" from the Learning Centre from April 22 - 30.

During this period, the Centre will be available to students for study and self-programmed learning aids. The shut down will also allow the needed time to reorganize materials, construct new facilities within the Centre (and other such housekeeping chores) prior to the Summer semester which begins May 3. The Learning Centre staff wish to thank all who contributed time and energy this past semester to ensure the continued successful operation of the facility.

4) E.L.T. DEPARTMENT

It is with great pleasure and even with shirt-button popping pride that the English Language Training Department announces that two of its instructors and its Divisional Chairman have been invited to teach courses at U.B.C. this summer. Lorna Hawes will teach Education 489, "Introductory Linguistics for Teachers" during Inter-Session and Rosemary Meyer and David Brown will teach Education 478, "Teaching English as an Additional Language" during Inter-Session and Summer Session respectively. Thus the tradition begun by Pat Wakefield and Jean Benetti continues! We offer our congratulations to the department and we wish these instructors every success.

7) SECRETARIAL WEEK STARTS APRIL 19TH

TO: K.E.C.'s secretary - SHARON HEMPHILL -

SUPERWOMAN

Hail to that special secretary
Whose skillful methods never vary.
She takes dictation fast indeed,
There seems no limit to her speed.
And furthermore, with no repentance,
She straightens out each tangled sentence,
Corrects the use of "I" and "me,"
Gets verb and subject to agree,
Unsplits infinitives and fixes
The metaphors her boss-man mixes,
Makes ramblings into cogent prose,
And best of all - he never knows.

8) WELCOME

A warm welcome to Steve Baker our new Receiver. Steve replaces Neil Longfield, who fled the cuckoo's nest.

9) NEWS FLASH

Eston Escapes Police on Lookout

RCMP are on the lookout for Bruce Eston who escaped from custody late yesterday. This person is considered extremely dangerous and is believed to be armed.

Residents of the area are warned to keep all doors and windows securely bolted as long as the fugitive is at large.

The break for freedom was made while the prisoner was being transported to a maximum security prison in Deep Cove.

Do not try to apprehend this criminal unless you are prepared to buy the drinks.

Wanted on two counts of jaywalking, this dangerous convict was last seen fleeing from the Graphic Arts Department of the Vancouver Vocational School.
