KING EDWARD CUPOLA

Reverse the scarlet tulip cup
 (petals folded like a nun's hands)
Rest it here on this ancient cover
 as its edges quiver in the sun;
 winds breathe, blow,
 small flames
 lick the leaves, the stem,
climb to the crimson,
 stand in tongues around the bell,
seek the spaces
fill them
with bouquets from hell

The essences mingle
 consume
 cremate
cheating the hungry
 passionless hammer

3) IT'S A SMALL WORLD!

Robert Cunningham, our Dean of Instruction and Jack Sullivan, V.V.I.'s Dean of Instruction recently discovered that they had both lived in the same town and attended the same High School (Dartford Grammar School) in England long before they came to Canada.

4) CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

Please note that it is the College's policy that no instructor, by nature of his or her relationship with the College, is permitted to involve students or fellow instructors in transactions of a commercial nature, particularly on college premises.

There have been two recent incidences of this happening.

However, this does not mean that an instructor cannot place a notice on the staff-room bulletin board showing that he has some of his own personal effects for sale or exchange.

7) THE HERITAGE FESTIVAL

The Heritage Festival, the Bank of Montreal and Dominion Construction are pleased to announce that the "VANCOUVER - THEN & NOW" photograph exhibit is now open at the Bank of Montreal, Bentall III at Burrard and Melville. The exhibit is open from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Monday to Friday. The display features approximately 225 photographs of Vancouver from 1870 to the present as well as a scale model of Granville (Gastown) in 1875. The display deals with such topics as Early History, Commercial and Architectural Development, Transportation, Chinatown, Theatres, Residential Development and People, and Parks and Recreation.

You are cordially invited to view the exhibit and we would welcome your comments and suggestions.
