4) THINK THIN!

Have you noticed the shortage of bodies around the office?
Between about five people, enough weight has been lost
to represent a whole person!

Seems as if everyone is dieting these days and the poundage lost amounts to about 134. That accounts for one good-sized person (or two midgets!)

KEEP IT DOWN, EVERYONE! (No hot-fudge sundaes, hamburgers, milk shakes, chocolate cake - or anything else that's good).
As you know, everything that is fun, is either illegal,
immoral or fattening.

Cat lovers will eat up B. Kliban's cards and posters, but the mouse lobby may squeal.
