

KING EDWARD TIMES

VOLUME V, No. 2

April 14, 1978

1) WHO'S WHO'S WINNERS!

The Champagne winners were Casey Lowe and Gwen Vine, our two dolls in the Duplicating Room. They missed only two out of the 21 pictures. Congratulations, girls. They shared the Champagne with Grant Kelly who instigated the whole thing. It was fun, it was challenging, and it got people together. Good guessing!

2) SHAKE, RATTLE AND ROLL!

Join Rita Shelley and Dave Greenall in the Staff Lounge of the Administration Building at 10:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. daily for a seven-minute fitness break to music.

Your heart will love you for it!

3) STOLEN CARS!

Two ELT instructors have recently had their cars stolen. The keys were removed from their jackets, which they had left in the classroom.

Keep your valuables on your person at all times to avoid theft.

4) JACK SULLIVAN

We were sorry to hear of the sudden and unexpected death of Jack Sullivan who, for the last fifteen months, had served as Dean of Instruction at the V.V.I. Funeral services were conducted yesterday.

Our condolences have been expressed to Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan.

5) CONDOLENCES

On behalf of their many friends at K.E.C., I have expressed condolences to Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Monasch, both of whose mothers died last weekend - Mrs. Monasch, Sr. in the nursing home fire and Mrs. Eedy at her home in Langley.

6) ENGLISH PLACEMENT TEST

My thanks go to those who invigilated the tests. My apologies also go to the same people and to some students.

In my ignorance, I was told that this would be the last test written before September. Yesterday evening, I was informed that the next test will be on;

July 18

at K.E.C., B.C.I.T. and at B.C. colleges and universities.

It will probably be written morning, afternoon and evening here.

I will keep you posted when I am better informed.

By the way, about 170 of our students wrote the English Placement Test.

7) TEAL OCCASIONAL PAPERS

TEAL OCCASIONAL PAPERS volume II, 1978 has received an $800 grant from the Ministry of Education to be used to help defray printing and distribution costs. As this came after the first printing, the money will be used for retyping, printing a second issue and further advertising and distribution. Anyone interested in exchanging their copy for a better one from the second issue should speak to me or leave a note in my box. Further orders still accepted at $2.50 each.

The ERIC Clearinghouse on Languages and Linguistics - Centre for Applied Linguistics, has requested copies of TEAL OCCASIONAL PAPERS volume II for reviewing for possible inclusion in the ERIC system, which involved reproduction of the material in microfiche and paper copy.

8) LETTER TO THE COUNSELLING DEPARTMENT

"Dear Dave:

Dena Vander Hooft, Chris Diamond and I wish to thank your staff for their hospitality to us on our visit to your campus last week. We are most grateful for the sharing of ideas and information relating to your intake and testing procedures. Already I have plans to improve our intake procedures. For fear of omitting anyone who gave so generously of their time, I hesitate to list all those who were so helpful. All three of us feel it was a worthwhile visit. If we can return the hospitality any time, don't hesitate to call us.

Of course, I especially want to thank Frank for his expertise in shepherding us around the campus and arranging interviews with your staff. He certainly earned the reputation of a great host, in my opinion. I feel that such cooperation between colleges can only result in improved service to students."

Yours truly,

Les Langdale, Counsellor
Camosun College

The Counselling Department thanks all who helped with this visit; in particular, Ruth Behnke, Betty Cameron, Ron Fussell, Marg Kellett, Grant Kelly, Connie Kellough, Peter Littleboy, Gwen Low, Elizabeth MacLeod and Mary Waddington.

9) 1978-79 K.E.C. CALENDAR

The Calendar for the coming year is hot off the press. If you have not received a copy, please get one from one of the ladies behind the counter.

I would appreciate any constructive criticisms and suggestions for improvement which can be included in the 1979-80 edition.

Please inform me of any errors and/or omissions. The most serious omission noted so far is the name of our charming Office Manager, Dorothy Moutter: she did not appear either as an administrator or as a member of our support staff. My apologies, Dorothy.
