

KING EDWARD TIMES

VOLUME V, No. 18

August 4, 1978

1) KING EDWARD DAY

November 24th will be our second King Edward Day; a day for faculty, staff and administration to get together, off-campus, for the purposes of campus unity, direction and relaxation.

Last year, we were very fortunate in obtaining excellent resource people. This year we will be equally fortunate, if only you will help.

During the past years, you have heard speakers, good and bad. Towards some you have felt "Pity that my colleagues aren't here!"

If you know of any such inspiring speakers, please give their names to me or to your division chairman.

On the other hand, is there a theme which is dear to your heart which you would like us all to share? Please let us know.

Your anticipated co-operation will make November 24 a truly memorable day.

2) HOLIDAY

"B.C. Day" is a recognized general holiday, falling on the first Monday in August. Therefore, all centres and offices of the College will be closed next Monday, August 7th.

The efforts of Jana Gaitanakis, Jack Colman, Margaret Nelson, Wayne Decle and Steve Baker, which resulted in the success of the Ibsen poster exhibition in the Learning Centre, are much appreciated.

On behalf of those faculty, staff and students who enjoyed it, particularly the opening, many thanks to you all.

I will be on holiday from August 8 to August 18. During my absence, Colin Casey will hold my fort as well as his own, and also handle my day-to-day worries/problems/pleasures??

Matters of a more serious nature should be referred to Mr. Pankratz for his attention, or be held in abeyance until my return.

6) FILM SHOWING

Tuesday, August 8th
11:15 a.m. and 5:45 p.m.
Room 123

"Starting from Nina", a 30 minute film recently produced in Toronto, illustrates Paulo Freire's approaches to learning.

Educator Freire was controversial in Brazil in the early 60's for his innovative approach to teaching literacy to rural workers through raising their social conscience.

The film shows his approaches in an elementary school classroom, in an ESL class and with office workers in the process of unionizing.

His book 'Pedagogy of the Oppressed' is available in the KEC library.
