2) NEWS FROM JOE DION

I received a letter from Joe Dion, who is on a leave of absence in Toronto doing course work towards a higher degree. He says that "it has taken a bit of scrambling after being away from school for four years, not just to catch up, but also to get back into the style of living necessary to study; basically reading a book all the time and not taking the weekends off to ski!"

He asks to be remembered to you all.
