

KING EDWARD TIMES

VOLUME V, No. 46

March 9, 1979

1) INFORMATION CENTRE - OPEN HOUSE

King Edward Campus officially opens the Information Centre on Monday, March 26th, 1979. All faculty and staff are cordially invited between the hours of 2:30 and 8:00 p.m. Join us for refreshments and see what the Centre has to offer you and the students. The Centre is located adjacent to Student Records.

2) ABE INSTRUCTORS' WORKSHOP

Betty Cameron and her colleagues are to be congratulated on the efforts they made at hosting and organizing a very successful workshop here last Friday and Saturday.

Such unstinted contributions by King Edward Campus Faculty again demonstrate the leadership they offer to the province in their own particular areas of specialization.

3) ENGLISH PLACEMENT TESTS

One hundred and seventy four of our students wrote the English Placement test on Tuesday between the hours of 0800 and 2030.

My thanks go to all the instructors involved who supervised the actual testing. They made my role in the exercise much easier.

4) MISSING; BORROWED; or WHATEVER

Whoever borrowed the carousel rack from the hall in the classroom building - will you please return it? Several students have complained to Student Health Services that they miss it (or rather, the health information that was on it.) Thank you!

9) AN INVITATION FROM THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The faculty, staff and students of the Vancouver Community College Music Program cordially invite all of their College counterparts to attend the 5th ANNUAL V.C.C. SPRING FESTIVAL OF MUSIC.

Performances this year range from a Coffee House to a Choral-Orchestra performance featuring the 100 voice Vancouver Community College/Community Choir.

Due to the popularity of our Festival each year and the fact that none of our performances have an admission charge, we ask our patrons to request and use the free tickets we distribute.

Should you wish to attend any of the concerts listed below, please call local 265 (Langara) and we will ensure your tickets are promptly delivered.

I'm sure you will enjoy any performances you attend.

14) TEAL CONVENTION VISITORS

From the north, south, east and west, visitors who are going to attend the TEAL convention have asked to observe ELT classes at KEC next Thursday evening. For example;

From the North:

Kay Hall and K. Hagerman from Kitimat
Kathy Mueller from Terrace
Doug Greene from Ft. Smith in the North West Territories

From the South:

Gunnar Gunderson and Bill Baker from Mt. Hood College in Portland

Joan Stout from Clark College in Vancouver (the other one!)

From the East:

Virginia Davie from the Alberta Vocational Centre in Edmonton
Elfrieda Dueck and Judy Nordness from Saskatoon Regional Community College

And from the West:

Catriona Harker and Aurelie Schrader from Camosun College.

Please welcome them all, and my most sincere thanks to the teachers who have opened their classrooms for observation. Your co-operation is greatly appreciated.
