NEW PRINCIPAL APPOINTED

The Vancouver Community College Board announces the appointment of Hans W. Rerup as principal of its Vancouver Vocational Institute.

Rerup, 50, has been with the college since 1971 and from 1975 until March of this year he was VVI's Dean of Administrative and Student Services. He then became acting principal of VVI, succeeding Jake McInnis, who took up duties as principal of East Kootenay Community College.

Rerup is a graduate of the electronics and communications program at VVI and he has a B.Sc. in electronics from the Pacific International College of Arts and Science.

A native of Germany, he came to Canada from Denmark in 1957. As well as acting as an administrator and instructor at the college, Rerup has a broad range of experience in private industry and business.

He lives in North Vancouver with his wife and two sons.
