COUNSELLING CENTRE - VIDEO

The Counselling Centre has just received a new video from:

WOMEN IN TRADES, KOOTENAY COUNCIL
BOX 3651, Castlegar, B.C. V1N 3W3

Title: "WHAT HAPPENS TO WOMEN IN TRADESLAND"

The video presents an overview of working in Trades and Technology jobs from a woman's point of view, and deals with issues involved in women's increasing participation in the workforce. It is designed for both male and female audiences.

The video is available for viewing in the Counselling Career Centre.

Eileen Herridge, Counsellor

GOODBYE AND HELLO FROM THE TRAC CREW

To Betty McClure our temporary Program Assistant - a fond farewell with heartfelt thanks for helping us through the first hectic four months of a new venture. We could not have done it without you!

To Gwen Langdon - welcome aboard and congratulations! We know your skills and experience are going to be used to the full in your new position as Program Assistant I, Vocational Planning and Work Readiness Department, TRAC - Common Core Program. The job is as big as the title! Thanks for your willingness to tackle it!

M.R.

After attending three graduation ceremonies in one month, Dick Dresch advises commencement speakers to do less commencing and more concluding.

Betty Bigley claims she'll really take a news bulletin seriously when the networks interrupt a commercial to deliver it.
