CASINO ROYALE

Organizers of Saturday's Casino/Dance at KEC report a howling success and many people are wondering when the next one will be held. Admissions totalled approximately 450, and virtually everyone had a great time. We would like to thank the good people who gave of their time to come out and help with the set-up and running of the Casino/Dance and add to its success. Sheriff Ted Anderson and Honest Kathie Lillie managed a fine Bingo Parlour aided by Amy Anderson and Art Elliott. Sid Tan, an Automotive Mechanic student, was a hard working Pit Boss and organizer of the dealers. We have to thank Don Keyes, Alfred Nash, Colleen Miller, Craig Bremner, Art Elliott and Greg King who came forward to manage various wheels and deals for the Casino. Looking after coat check were Joan Ripple, Vi McKinnon, Kathy Wotton, Angela Abbinante, Claudia Mason, Lorraine Herlick and Maureen Dorratt. Taking cash, selling chips or selling door tickets were Gillian Akin, Zinnett Bilgin, Yvonne Cantin, Joyce Lydiard, Miriam Bennett and Grace Shaw. The moving of furniture and setting up the night before was accomplished by Dave Greenall, Jim Funk, Vi McKinnon, Rudy Skelly, Scott Siran, Bud Stewart, Frank Fornelli and Myrna Redman. Cleaning up and moving furniture back the day after fell to Myrna and Bill Redman and Grant Kelly.

We would also like to say a big "thank you" to all the music students, under the direction of Sue Oberhossner, who made such a colourful and musical contribution to the evening's entertainment. To Ed Davis and Stan Manson and the DOMCO crew, thanks for standing by with soup for the crew, coffee for the people and for preparing such good chow. Athena Dimoupolous helped out by constantly clearing tables of bottles and litter. The smooth, trouble-free operation of the evening can be credited to Sar Mann and the security crew who kept things cool and enjoyable. Special thanks to Dave Crowe and wife Renata and Howard Olsen and his wife Lilly who came forth and managed the bar all night long, and were aided in the later stages by Steve Baker and Eric Adler.

Thanks to one and all, KEC's United Way contribution has risen even higher; similarly KEC's contribution to the VCC Education Foundation. Expressions of thanks to the community who supported the event in large measure are being mailed out at this time.

WORKSHOP PRESENTATIONS

VCC-KEC was well represented at the Fall Workshop of the LSABC (Learning Specialists Association of B.C.) by Anne Chou "Computers and Learning" and Wayne Ko "Focus on Tutoring". Both workshops dealt with Learning in the Math/Sciences and addressed the concerns of professionals working in post-secondary developmental education. Anne and Wayne can be found working at the KEC Learning Centre through the week.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

With January book orders now completed, I have time to update you folks about the developments at the BOOKSTORE.

Welcome to Cheryl Silver -

Cheryl, as most of you are aware, has been diligently serving you at the Bookstore since August of 1983. Her position was recently posted and Cheryl was the successful applicant (again). Congratulations and another "welcome aboard" to Cheryl.

Christmas Supplies -

A reminder - all Christmas supplies are selling at 15% off the suggested retail prices. In addition to this discount, a further 10% reduction is available to staff. An example of the savings:

Suggested retail price (box of 20 cards)	7.00
Marked-down price	5.95
After Staff Discount	5.35
Savings per box	1.65

Prices of boxed cards range from 4.50 to 8.25. Also available are single cards, candles, banners, wrapping paper and other miscellaneous items, all at great savings.

The Stars Have Arrived -

We said it would happen - a bevy of stars have arrived at the Bookstore. Dom Deluise, Ed McMahon, Foster Brooks and others are available on "Greetings from the Stars" cassettes. Each cassette has 2-3 minute salutation from 3 different renowned personalities for occasions such as birthdays, anniversaries and graduation. The reverse side of the tape is blank and allows for your own personal message. They come in a specially designed package that accommodates a brief written message and can be securely folded and mailed. Let some of "the stars" help with a unique greeting to a person close to you. These contemporary gifts are available at the attractive price of $3.95 (less 10% of course).

Teacher

I am that most fortunate of men for I am eternal

Others live merely in the world of today; I live in the world of tomorrow

Others find purpose in the transient and the temporal; I find meaning in the enduring and the eternal

For I am charged with that most sacred mission — to transmit all that our forebears lived for, loved for, and died for to the next generation

I span the generations — making the wisdom of the past live now so that the future will have meaning

I make wisdom live, for I am no mere bearer of knowledge

I do not simply teach the mind
I reach the heart and — when I reach the heart
I touch the soul

To those who say two generations hence what will I be if not a distant memory, I respond:

Though the mind fades,
memories linger

Though the body fails, the spirit prevails

Though the scroll burns, the letters dance in the air.
