EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

As you may be aware, the College Board, at its meeting of November 28, 1984, approved, in principle, the establishment of a plan to allow administrators and permanent regular faculty to defer a portion of their regular salary for retirement or sabbatical leave purposes.

Initially, it was hoped that we could implement the plan as early as December, 1984 based on the premise that an advance tax ruling from Revenue Canada would not be required.

Some concerns in this regard were expressed by the College Board and, upon investigation, proved to be very valid. Accordingly, it was deemed, in the mutual best interests of the College, the Plan Administration Committee and the prospective members of the Plan to seek an advanced tax ruling from Revenue Canada, Taxation.

We are proceeding immediately to make such an application and anticipate approval to be forthcoming in the near future. Until then, we cannot formally execute the Trust Agreement and other plan documents and participation by individuals in the Plan cannot begin.

When all details are finalized, an announcement will be made.

EXCERPT FROM A LETTER TO J. DOMER FROM GAEL BLACKHALL, CARTWRIGHT STREET GALLERY

"On Saturday, November 24, 1984 the Cartwright Street Gallery held its gala fund-raising event, the Festive Treasures Auction. Artists, designers and craftsmen such as Arthur Erickson and Martha Sturdy donated uniquely festive artworks and services celebrating the warmth of the Christmas season. The Vancouver Community College Jazz Combo joined these artists in the spirit of fundraising and made a musical contribution which was influential in the success of the evening.

Playing to a house of 350 influential members of the artistic and business communities, the Combo's subtle choice of repertoire added that extra spark of excitement needed to galvanize auction bidding. This, coupled with compelling musicianship, resulted in a first rate ensemble sound. Auction organizers specifically mentioned the Combo's flexibility and reliability as particular assets above and beyond their obvious flair for a range of jazz idioms.

On behalf of the Festive Treasures Auction Committee I want to express sincere and hearty thanks to these musicians and wish them much success in future musical endeavors."
