DR. PAUL GALLAGHER VISITS KEC

Vancouver Community College president-designate Dr. Paul Gallagher will be on campus next Monday afternoon, March 18th, meeting with the King Edward Campus Management Committee and familiarizing himself somewhat with the campus. At or about half-past three, he'll be meeting instructional and faculty leaders in the dining room - I've sent notes inviting department heads, assistant department heads, coordinators, and leaders of faculty/staff associations to meet him, have a cup of coffee, etc.

If you're not included in the group mentioned above and you happen to be in the dining room and/or you'd simply like to meet our new president, please feel free to join us, shake Dr. Gallagher's hand and have a cup of coffee.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES FOR FLOOR WARDENS/DEPUTY FLOOR WARDENS

When the fire alarm sounds, you will ensure the orderly evacuation of your area and check that all washrooms, classrooms, and shops are empty. Should an exit be blocked, be prepared to indicate an alternate route to safety. Once your area is safely evacuated, recruit a monitor to report to the Fire Safety Director--directly, if you have exited to Broadway; indirectly to security personnel if you have exited to Glen or Keith; indirectly to the Receiver if you have exited on the north side of the campus. Please report promptly and by area, e.g.:

Humanities Dept. clear; Autobody clear;
Level 5 Administration clear.

The Fire Safety Director will record the area reports and will know when the building has been completely evacuated. The all-clear signal consists of a series of short rings of the alarm bell. The building can be entered once the signal is sounded.

In the event of an alarm after the switchboard has closed (5:00 p.m. Monday to Friday) Security will contact the Fire Department (911). The guard will be prepared to meet and assist Fire Department personnel. Floor wardens and/or their deputies will ensure the evacuation of their areas. A report by area will not be required. An officer from the Fire Department will issue the all-clear command. The guard will sound it from 1533.

Please advise of any revisions of personnel assuming Floor Warden/Deputy Floor Warden roles.

IT'S VANCOUVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

IF YOU NEED TO KNOW...

NEW CHAIRMAN AT VCC

Elizabeth Jarvis was recently elected chairman of the Vancouver Community College Board for 1985-86. Mrs. Jarvis has been a member of the board since 1979. She has a B.A. in economics from the University of British Columbia and is very active in community affairs, as a member of the Community Arts Council of Vancouver, as a member of the advisory panel of the City of Vancouver Downtown Development Permit Board, and as a member of the Education Research Institute of British Columbia's board of directors. She succeeds Peter Hebb as chairman.

Pam Glass was elected vice-chairman of the board.

You are invited to preview the work of the newest generation of British Columbia artists at the fine arts department open house, Langara Campus of Vancouver Community College, March 26 through March 29. Tuesday through Thursday the hours are 10:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Friday 10:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Studios will be in session and paintings, drawings, sculpture, ceramics, design and prints will be on display. Langara Campus is at 100 West 49th Ave. The studio is in the basement of the campus.

Dr. Marvin Lamoureux, dean of instruction at the college's Vancouver Vocational Institute, was recently named general secretary of the international section of the American Vocational Association.

Paul Gallagher has been named the new president and chief executive officer of Vancouver Community College. Dr. Gallagher leaves his duties as principal of Capilano College to take up his new office May 1. He came to the principal's job at Capilano College in 1977. Previously he served as director of the Canadian Studies Foundation and director general of Montreal's Dawson College. He has a master of education from Bishop's University and a doctor of civil laws (honoris causa) from Sir George Williams University.

Dr. Gallagher succeeds Tony Manera who left VCC February 28 to become vice-president of human resources for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. Langara Principal, Dr. J.J. Denholm will act as college president in the interim.

Relations between Canada and Malaysia are the focus of a talk Dr. Paul Chan will give at Langara Campus the evening of Wednesday, March 13. The lecture is part of the ongoing series "Canada's Neighbours in Asia," jointly sponsored by the college's Pacific Rim Program and the Canadian International Development Agency. Dr. Chan is a professor of applied economics at the University of Malaya, as well as being an economics advisor to the Malaysian prime minister. Malaysia, with its crude oil and rubber resources, has built a healthy economy by encouraging foreign investment.

The Vocational Instructors' Association, the representative body for teachers at King Edward Campus and Vancouver Vocational Institute, is having an awards night March 15 at Vancouver Vocational Institute. That evening they will present eight $200 scholarships to students, recognizing the efforts they have put into their studies. As well as conferring the honours, the evening will feature a bar, food and dancing. Tickets are $10 per person and all interested members of the public are welcome. For tickets call 681-8111. Vancouver Vocational Institute is at 250 West Pender Street.

"Great Cities of the past," a free lecture series presented by Langara Campus, continues at Oakridge Auditorium through March. March 14 Barrie Brill talks about "Chartres - City of Gold," and March 21 George Karas looks at "Constantinople - A Christian Legacy." The lectures are at noon hour. Admission is free. Bring your lunch and escape for a bit. The auditorium is at West 41st Ave. and Cambie St.

Under an agreement with the federal government and provincial governments, Vancouver Community College will host a group of 22 Francophone Canadian students at a summer English language training program at Langara Campus.

Dental Technician students at Vancouver Vocational Institute are working with dental students at the University of British Columbia in a pilot project. Under the direction of the UBC students the VVI students are designing the framework for partial dentures, first in wax and plastic, then fabricating the metal framework.

The Japan Foundation recently presented the Langara Campus library with 65 volumes of reference and general works about Japan. The college has a strong interest in this part of the world, as evidenced by its Pacific Rim Program.
