CASHING OF PERSONAL CHEQUES

It has come to my attention that personal cheques of employees of the College are being cashed at bookstores and other cashier locations throughout the College. This is a practice that should not be allowed under any circumstances.

I would ask that you pass the word to your respective personnel in these areas that in future personal cheques (other than those in payment of goods purchased, if this is an allowable practice) are not to be cashed.

We have had several examples of personal cheques "bouncing" NSF and in effect this means the employee is using College funds.

Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

FROM THE ANGLICAN/UNITED CHURCH CHAPLAINCY

To promote understanding between the various faith groups represented on campus the Anglican/United Church Chaplaincy will sponsor a series of free lectures on the different world religions. This series is open to all and there will be time for discussion following each lecture.

An introduction to the Baha'i Religion will be given on Thursday, November 28th from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. in Room 2145 (off cafeteria). Gordon Partovi, Co-ordinator of Ecumenical Action, will be the guest lecturer.

Audrey Lans, Chaplain, is the contact person for this series and can be reached at 875-8205 or 420-5254 for further details.
