VOLUME X1, No. 37

1986 January 16

BEFORE SOMETHING HAPPENS.....

There is a growing concern about staff/faculty who work in isolated parts of the campus at night.

I am willing to organize lunch time WENDO courses for anyone who wants to learn some basic self-defense. Contact Donna Barreca - local 487.

THE PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE AT KING EDWARD CAMPUS

The theme for King Edward Day has been set - the date is Thursday, March 27. Now we need two important factors:

- 1) A committee to organize the day; and
- 2) proposals for workshops/seminars/speakers.

If you would like to help make the day a success, please give me, or my secretary, your name by 1986 January 21 and your ideas by 1986 January 28. It is essential that there be representation from each division, from support services, and from administration.

FROM THE HOMEMAKERS

THE UNDER-RATED BAND

We're underpaid and under-rated,
Overworked yet dedicated
We're signposts on the social highway
Directing those who take the by-way
- the lost, the lonely, sick and aging,
Against whom time and life are raging.

We see the things that others hide,
We do the things that others chide,
No headlines trumpet our quiet doings
No union reps., our members wooing.

Yet in each hamlet, town and city
We ladies all, both warm and witty
Bring comfort, help and consolation
To the older citizens of our nation.

We'll wash and cook and bathe the ailing,
We're eyes and ears to those whose own are failing,
We are the Homemakers of this land
A truly under-rated band.
