"I CAN WIN A CAR FOR ONLY $2.00"?

That's right folks, now is your chance to help yourself, as you help students. It is, of course the KEC 2nd annual CAR RAFFLE. Tickets are now on sale and a book of tickets has been assigned to you. The books & tickets are numbered and the stubs are to be returned to Shirley Girvan, along with your cheque or monies collected. The tickets are $2.00 each or $20.00 for a book of eleven tickets (yes, the extra $2.00 is for you, the seller - or you may enter your name on the extra stub).

Please contact Shirley for additional books. Tickets & books, assigned initially to you, which are unsold by March 9th, should be returned to Shirley for re-assignment.

The car will be on display from Feb. 23rd to the "official kick-off" day of Friday, Feb. 27th. You are invited to attend the ribbon cutting ceremony on the 27th, at 12 noon (outside the Security office), - music, entertainment, VIP's, etc. Come early and get a good view!

In the meantime, the drive is launched - "happy sale-ing".

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

Writing On Our Side -- created by the Progressive Literacy Group which includes faculty members Ingrid Kolsteren (BTSD), John Kostoff and Maggi Trebble (ESL/Vocational) is now available in the bookstore for $3.00. The booklet deals with the problem of functional illiteracy in our society and discusses 2 types of English:

- corporate (a complex academic-journalistic style of writing)
- popular (a more accessible style)

The booklet presents a step-by-step approach to writing "popular" English.

VACATION NOTICE

From the 23rd of February through to the 13th of March inclusive, I will be on vacation. Shirley Girvan will look after my desk; administrative matters should be referred to Dr. Fast. CHEERS!

AT THE LIBRARY

The Reference section of the library has been receiving some new materials which are particularly useful for English literature students. The first is a multi-volumed collection called Masterplots. This contains over 2,000 plot stories and essay reviews from world literature. From Aesop's Fables to Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, we can now assist students looking for review material.

The Second important series is: Critical Survey of Long Fiction and it is arranged by author. Once again, there may be analytical reviews and analyses, but more in depth discussion of authors and their achievements. The Reference staff are very pleased to have these very useful tools to help students in their research papers.

One more useful reference book of importance is Bowker's On Cassette 1986/87. This is a bibliography of all spoken work cassettes that are available.

IN MEMORY OF MARGARET FURIAK

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who gave so generously towards the fund to obtain a seat at the Orpheum Theatre in Margaret Furiak's name. The seat location is Centre Orchestra, Row 19, seat 40.

As Margaret and her mother (who passed away in 1981) were very close and shared many interests, the family felt it would be appropriate to put the names of both Margaret and her mother on the plaque.

Margaret was an exceptional person whom we're missing very much. Knowing others thought so highly of her too gives us a warm, happy feeling we'll carry with us always. Thank you again.

Mr. John Furiak, Gordie, Mary Anne and boys.
