Changes in the "King Edward Times"

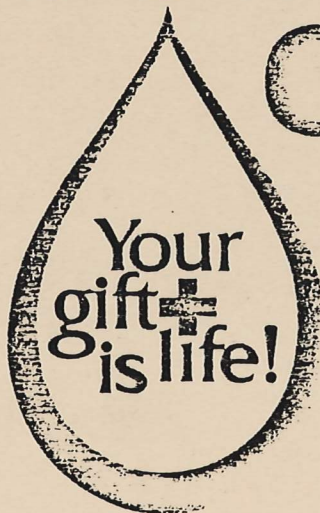

You may have noticed a few changes in our in-house newsletter, the "King Edward Times". It is now being printed on better paper in a consistent colour. No more "passion pink" or "polish green"! We are trying to improve the appearance by clearer type and better layout.

I would be delighted to see occasional short (up to one half page) articles from faculty and staff about professional development activities, conferences attended or books worth noting. Please let me know if you're interested in contributing.

Other suggestions for the King Edward Times are welcome.

A NOTE FROM THE HOME SUPPORT AIDE STAFF:

Marian Sylvester and the Home Support Aide Staff would like to thank all their friends at King Edward Campus for the beautiful bouquet of carnations and irises. We have been made to feel most welcome at Vancouver Vocational Institute and we are settling into our new home very nicely. The view from the 9th floor is glorious.

PLEASE NOTE NEW GRADUATE COURSES AT UBC:

Graduate Course:

EDC1 508 (1.5): Theory and Practice of Distance Education

The course will introduce the field of distance education through a detailed and critical analysis of the theory, issues and practice of distance education. Emphasis will be placed on the applications of distance education at various levels, both in general and in specific institutions. Attention will also be paid to the processes of distance education and to its development in B.C. and in Canada.

Course Instructor: Dr. Ian Mugridge

Dean of the B.C. Open University, Dr. Mugridge is a distinguished teacher and author in distance education with extensive Canadian and international experience.

This is a regular graduate level course offered by UBC and is suitable for any program in CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTIONAL STUDIES at UBC. It may be acceptable for credit in graduate programs at other Universities.

First Meeting: 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, October 6th, 1987
Room 201, Ponderosa F, UBC Campus

FUMES/SMELLS:

Last week we had the unfortunate experience of odours in two areas of the campus, as a result of work being done on the air system in those areas. There was no indication that the odours were of a toxic or hazardous nature.

The air system intake for some of the classroom areas on the second and third floor is being diverted from above the mechanical trades area to intake air stacks on the roof. The work is proceeding as quickly as possible and should be completed by the end of next week. Measures have been taken to minimize any further odours that may be discomforting.

As mentioned in the principal's "State of the Campus" address please keep Shirley Girvan (local 731) informed of any problems that you are experiencing with the quality of air in your work area.

CAMPUS INTER-FAITH:

What do I need to support my faith here at KEC?

Where can I go for support in times of difficulties and changes in my life?

What are concerns that I share with others here?

How can learning about our differences and common concerns help us as a community at KEC?

Even if I don't belong to a specific faith/religion is there a place I can go to talk about my relationship with society or other questions?

Campus Inter-Faith has recently formed to look at the common faith needs and concerns of KEC students, staff and faculty. It hopes to develop a support network that will include all faiths represented on campus.

Denise Nadeau is the Inter-Faith Resource Person on campus this fall. She is offering chaplaincy services (in English, French and broken Spanish) and is gathering resources to meet the specific needs of the King Edward Community. Her office is Room 3074 (in the Library) and her number is 875-6111, Loc. 511. She is on the KEC campus Monday to Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Please feel free to drop in at any time.

People of all faiths are invited to join the Inter-Faith group. Please contact Denise. As well, starting September 30 there will be a Wednesday 'Drop-In' in Room 3074 for anybody who wants to share concerns or ideas.

Please join us.

Denise Nadeau

Chairman of the College Board Honoured

The September 9 issue of The Vancouver Courier carried an article describing awards presented by the Junior League of Vancouver. Among the recipients of awards for outstanding contribution as a volunteer in the community was Mrs. Elizabeth Jarvis, Chairman of our College Board. Among other things the article notes that:

"Mrs. Jarvis came to Canada from Vienna as a child. She attended York House School and UBC where she earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree with an Economics Major. She also attended the Sorbonne in Paris.

Mrs. Jarvis began her work in voluntarism when she joined the Junior League of Vancouver in 1958 and she has continued her involvement in the community for almost thirty years.

She has been a docent for the Vancouver Aquarium and the Vancouver Museum. She has served with distinction on the Boards of the Museums and the Planetarium Association, the Education Research Institute of B.C., the Community Arts Council and the Advisory Panel to the Downtown Development Permit Board. She is also a founding member of the Vancouver Community College Education foundation.

One of Mrs. Jarvis' more significant contributions to the community is the work she has been doing on the Vancouver Community College Board. She has been with the Board since 1978 and has been the Chairman of that Board since 1985. Presently, the Board is very proud of its latest project: a $4 million expansion of the Langara Campus Library and other student service areas. Construction began this summer."

Congratulations, Mrs. Jarvis!
