WELCOME TO OUR NEXT "STATE OF THE CAMPUS" MEETING ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1988:

I am pleased to invite you to our next "State of the Campus" Meeting which will be held on Tuesday, January 26, 1988, 3:15 - 4:30 p.m. in the Auditorium.

At this meeting I want to do the following:

1. Review the progress made in several projects announced at our first "State of the Campus" meeting in September.
2. Summarize for you some of the major initiatives planned for the campus in the next six months.
3. Give you a copy of "My Vision for King Edward Campus 1988-93" so that we may begin to discuss together some of the long-term directions for the Campus.

All classes will be cancelled from 3:15 to 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, January 26 and campus services will be closed (except for absolutely essential services) so that all faculty, staff and administrators have the opportunity to attend the meeting.

The meeting itself will be quite short. Light refreshments will be served to all in the faculty dining area immediately after the meeting.

KING EDWARD DAY, 1988 - MORE HELP NEEDED:

I'm willing to work for King Edward Day, 1988 but I need more help. After my note in last week's King Edward Times only 2 people volunteered to work on the Committee for this year.

I'd appreciate your participation. Please let me know soon if you are willing to help plan King Edward Day, 1988.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The Library has added four new periodicals to the ever-expanding list of subscriptions. Three of them are completely concerned with computers: Word Perfectionist, Nibble and Incider. The other one is titled Science, which is a weekly publication from AAS. This one is for library use only, but you can have your name added to the routing list if you are interested. The first three do circulate, so come in and check them to find why they have called them by such creative, innovative names. Nibble - byte - see?
