CELEBRATING VANCOUVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

by Jill Tyndale

Come and join your friends and colleagues at VCC Day!
It takes place Monday, April 25 at the BC Enterprise Centre.

VCC Day has been organized for everyone who works at VCC, whether a full-time, part-time, permanent or temporary employee of the College. The purpose of the day is for instructors and staff to meet your counterparts on the other campuses and find out more about what goes on elsewhere in the College. VCC Day has been designed to explore, through speakers and a panel discussion, issues of interest to the entire College. The theme for the day: Education, Passion, and the Real World.

The idea for VCC Day originated with, and has been put together by a volunteer committee made up of Continuing Education Senior Program Coordinator, Jill Tyndale (chair), Dalton Kremer and Sandra Jones from VVI, Martin Gerson and Bob Worcester from Langara, Sam Lewindon and Terry Smith from KEC, Paul Sinnott from Continuing Education, Human Resources' Jean Blake, and Alumni Association Executive Director Colleen Smith.

A budget of $20,000, provided from the B.C. Excellence in Management Fund, has been set for the day however we anticipate coming in well under this figure.

VCC Day will start at 8:30 with coffee and rolls and a cross-campus trivia contest. Prizes will be awarded.

Vancouver Mayor, Gordon Campbell will provide the opening remarks for the day, followed by our keynote speaker, Thomas R. Berger. Mr. Berger sat on the B.C. Supreme Court from 1971 to 1983 when he resigned to be free to speak on questions of human rights. He has headed three royal commissions as well as the Alaska Native Review Commission. He currently maintains a private law practice and is professor of law at U.B.C.

A panel discussion will follow Mr. Berger's speech. Lucie McNeill, who is the co-host of CBC's Early Edition, will be moderator. Among our panelists will be: Sylvia Russell, VCC alumna and executive Director of the Vancouver Food Bank, Elaine Bernard, Lecturer in Labour studies at SFU, and Keith Gray from the B.C. Business Council

(see over)

After a boxed lunch, with wine or beer if you wish, we will wind up the afternoon with a keynote speech by Peter C. Newman. Mr. Newman is nationally acclaimed as a former editor and currently columnist for Maclean's magazine. He has written many books among which are Renegade in Power, The Canadian Establishment, Company of Adventurers and Caesars of the Wilderness. He is well-known as a speaker and is noted for his pithy commentary on the political scene in Canada. A B.C. resident, he is sure to have some thoughtful comments with which to challenge us.

After the keynote speech, we'll have a wine and cheese and some entertainment.

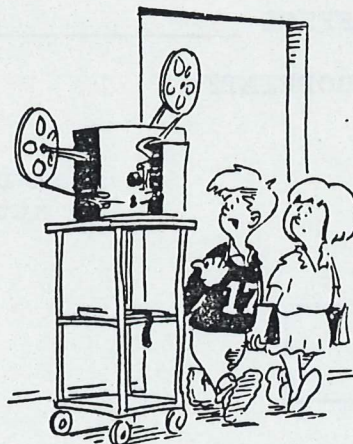

Your MC's at the event will be Miriam Bennett (KEC), Jackie Sandy (VVI) and Martin Gerson (Langara).

VCC Day takes place on April 25th at the BC Enterprise Centre. Expo 86 visitors will remember it as the BC Pavilion. If you have registered, you will shortly receive an information package with instructions on how to get there and an agenda for the day.

If you haven't already done so, please fill in the attached registration form by April 15th. We need to know how many lunches to order.

Although it is a working day, the college, except for essential services, will be closed that day.

So come down to the Enterprise Centre. It's going to be quite an experience.

VCC DAY NEEDS YOUR HELP

On VCC Day, April 25, we will need a great deal of volunteer help for tasks such as handing out registrant kits, directing people, and clean-up. In return, we offer absolutely nothing but our heartfelt thanks.

If you'd like to help, simply check off the box on the attached registration form. We'll be in touch.

Thank you.

KEC ON A LUCKY LOTTERY WINNING STREAK!!:

Marta Gardiner just could not believe that she won $1,000.00 at the Friday, March 18th draw. Marta has worked in ESL at King Edward Campus and is currently with the Assessment Centre. 200 was the winning number.

Thorne Husband, a colleague of the winner said, "It couldn't of happened to a nicer person." When asked what she planned to do with the money Marta said, "I'm going to take a lot friends out for lunch." Now thats a nice person.

Next draw March 25th at Langara - Tickets are still available contact the Foundation for more information. Local 329.

A VERITABLE BUMPER CROP:

Just look at all the goodies we have for you this time. Never have we been so well endowed with new books - despite the tightness of the budget. Just shows how hard we look for you.

KEC COMMITTEE ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

"Every study conducted on a campus, either in Canada or the United States, shows that sexual harassment is a problem" (E.S. Soloman. A paper presented at the Alberta Student Services Conference, 1986). For instance, a University of Calgary survey stated that 30% of undergraduates encountered sexually inappropriate behaviour. Many of these behaviours emanated from male students but 27% came from people in authority over these students.

Sexual harassment is difficult to define as "it may range from sexual innuendo made at inappropriate times, perhaps in the guise of humour, to coerced sexual relations" (B.C. Federation of Labour). Although sexual harassment typically involves a female as victim, both males and females can be harassed by members of either sex.

Most colleges in B.C. now have or are in the process of developing a policy regarding sexual harassment on their campuses. Such a policy allows the college to deal with this problem in a consistent and fair manner while safeguarding the legal and human rights of all individuals involved.

V.C.C. has no policy on sexual harassment. Over the past year, a committee at Langara has been examining the issue. It seems clear that any proposed policy should involve the participation of representatives from all campuses. The Langara committee has distributed a questionnaire to faculty to find out the extent of this problem. They are formulating a questionnaire for students.

A committee at KEC on sexual harassment is being set up. The purpose would be education of this issue and to participate in the proposal of a VCC policy. We hope to have representation from faculty, staff, students and administrators.

REQUESTS FOR GENERAL SUPPLIES:

The Receiving Department has been receiving many telephone calls in regard to requests for general supplies. This is becoming very time consuming and takes the receiver away from his normal duties of processing incoming shipments. Therefore the receiver will not be accepting any more requests for general supplies by phone. The following procedure will be in effect Monday, March 28, 1988;

- Item 1: Requests for supplies must be generated through a supply order form.
- Item 2: All supply requests must be given to the mail clerk.
- Item 3: The mail clerk will fill all small orders and forward larger orders to the Receiver.
- Item 4: The Receiver will fill and deliver the large orders within the time constraints of the receiving operation.

Your cooperation in this regard will be greatly appreciated.

Please Take Note.

Jim Humble

STUDENT I.D. PHOTOS:

No Student Identification pictures will be taken on March 29/30th. Pictures will resume being taken on April 5, 1988.
