AUTOMOTIVE AND EQUIPMENT TECHNOLOGY FOR THE 90'S

The King Edward Campus is proud to host the Society of Automotive Engineers' Trade Show and Conference for 1988 October 28 and 29. This is a first for VCC, and we look forward to inviting members of the automotive diesel and autobody industries to visit our campus. The event will stage displays, presentations and demonstrations throughout this day-and-a-half activity. We are anticipating, among the displays, "state-of-the-art" diesel trucks and automobiles. In order to house this equipment, it may be necessary to cordon off a section of the faculty parking lot for Friday, October 28. I would appreciate your cooperation and assistance for that day by asking that faculty members park in the lower lot in order that the large vehicles can be positioned for display. It is anticipated that this activity will take place during the Friday morning. Once the vehicles are in place, the remainder of the lot will be available for regular parking. Your cooperation will be truly appreciated. Thank you.

INGRID KOLSTERIN HAS PRODUCTIVE KEC DAY, TOO

KEC Day proved to be a stimulating and productive day for those of us on campus. Ingrid Kolsterin, BTSD instructor, visited the hospital briefly and returned home with an 8 lb. 3 oz. baby boy. Baby, Mum, Dad, big brothers and big sister are all well.

PICTURES

There are quite a few pictures in the Library that were formerly used by teachers. Some pictures are hard backed and others are simply laminated, but they are all taking up space. If you think some of them might be handy as teaching aids, please come to the Library and have a look before we dispose of them forever.

We're Getting Together To Give

This year, the United Way campaign at King Edward Centre will be a coordinated effort among staff members of KEC, Continuing Education and Central Administration.

The campaign will be short but intense, Oct. 26-Nov. 4. Just eight short days. But during these eight days, your United Way Committee (Shirley Girvan, Wendy Lannard, Diane Miller, Eleanor Wilmot, Terry Smith, Gordon Rudolph and Paul Sinnott) has planned a full slate of activities:

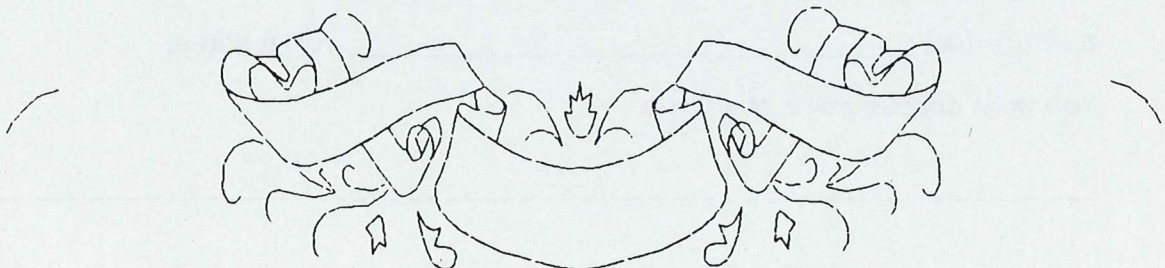

- Wed. Oct. 26 - Noon Kick-Off
  - Music
  - Balloon release
  - Speakers
  - Silent Auction begins
- Thu. Oct. 27 - Plant & Bake Sale
- Fri. Oct. 28 - End of day Beer Bash
- Mon. Oct. 31 - Costume Day (Team Event)
- Tue. Nov. 1 - Special Event Day (Team Event)
- Wed. Nov. 2 - Steeplechase (Team Event)
- Thu. Nov. 3 - Pancake Breakfast
  - Indoor Golf (Team Event)
- Fri. Nov. 4 - "United Night" Beer Garden & Carnival
  - Music - Soundwave and more
  - Slave Auction
  - Pie Throw
  - Silent Auction closes
  - Dinner

During these activities, we'll be asking you to give by taking part, not by parting with a lot of money (maybe, just a little). We're saving the giving for the United Way Pledge Cards.

The first thing we're asking is for you to turn this page over and pick the person you would like to see in the slave auction or would like to see with a pie in the face.

If you would like to help, have any suggestions, compliments or complaints, please talk to one of the committee members.

Slave Auction\
Pie in the Face
Suggestion Form

Choose your own personal slave or decide who gets a pie in the face!

From Tuesday, Oct. 11 to Friday, Oct. 14, suggestion boxes will be placed in the Student Cafeteria and in the Faculty Lounge. This is your chance to determine which administrator, instructor, or staff member you would like to have as a slave or to throw a pie at.

Oct. 14 is the deadline for suggestions.

And on Nov. 4 at the Beer Garden and Carnival, you will see that your vote does count!

K.E.C. FACULTY/STAFF QUESTIONNAIRE ON HARASSMENT

What is harassment?

Harassment is a form of discrimination and is against the law. It means being subjected to unwelcome verbal or physical conduct on the basis of race, sex (including sexual orientation), colour, religion, political belief, national or ethnic origin, disability (physical, mental, learning), age, marital status, family status or conviction of a criminal offence (refer to the Canadian Human Rights Act). It is objectionable behaviour made by a person who knows or who ought reasonably to know that the behaviour would create an environment unconducive to work or study.

Harassment may occur during one incident or over a series of incidents any one of which, in isolation, would not necessarily constitute harassment.

Sexual harassment is a specific type of harassment which places objectionable emphasis on the sex of the individual. Most cases involve men harassing women; however, harassment can occur between individuals of the same sex or women harassing men.

Examples of harassment (including sexual harassment) include:

- unwelcome remarks, jokes, innuendos about a person's body, attire, age, marital status, ethnic or national origin, religion;
- displaying of pornographic, racist or other offensive or derogatory pictures;
- verbal abuse or threats.

IS HARASSMENT A PROBLEM AT V.C.C.?

The purpose of our questionnaire is to examine whether harassment is a problem at K.E.C.

WHY DO WE NEED A POLICY ON HARASSMENT AT V.C.C.?

Studies indicate that harassment occurs on Canadian and American campuses.

A policy on harassment at K.E.C. would be a form of protection for campus personnel and students who feel harassed or who are accused of harassment. There would be clear procedures for the complainant to follow (presently there are no set procedures). The accused would be able to present his/her position in confidentiality. There would be the opportunity for mediation and, therefore, less need for a case to go through a more costly procedure such as a hearing at the B.C. Human Rights Commission. According to the Canadian Human Rights Act, the employer is liable for any act of harassment committed by an employee.

Cont'd . . .

Please take the time to fill our questionnaire so that your harassment committee can begin the task of determining what policies or procedures may be necessary to protect YOU.

If you did not pick up a questionnaire at K.E.C. Day, they are available in the Counselling Department and from Doreen Sharan at the Fourth Floor Reception. Please return to Thorne Husband.
