IN LOVING MEMORY

With deep regret Domco Foodservices announces the recent death of our K.E.C. Foodservice Manager, Mr. William Ballentine. The immediate family wishes to thank those who expressed their concern for Bill during the past few weeks. There will be a private funeral. Donations to the Cancer Society instead of floral arrangements would be appreciated.

Effective Monday, 1988 November 21, Domco Food Services wishes to announce the appointment of Miss Melissa D. Phillips as Food Service Director at K.E.C. Nora Hall will continue in her present capacity of Assistant Manager and Randall Soperman will be First Cook ably assisted by Barry Bell. Your continued support and best wishes are greatly appreciated.

OUR CONDOLENCES

Staff in the KEC Library is very sad to announce the loss suffered by two of our members. After a long illness, John Lambert's mother passed away over the weekend. And quite unexpectedly after a short illness, Brenda Appleton's mother died in Los Angeles. Brenda is presently with her family in California and will return to the Library toward the end of this week or at the beginning of next week.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR THE KIDS!

This will be the first Christmas in Canada for many of our students' children. Help us make it a memorable one. Five dollars will buy a gift for one child. Please give generously. Donation boxes are located on the Fourth Floor at the switchboard and on Amy's desk in Room 3174. Thanks for your support.

AN INVITATION

A special Christmas production of our King Edward Times is being created for the December 15th edition. You are invited to share personal Christmas stories, poems, recipes and other festive articles to help celebrate the occasion. Christmas wishes and new Year's resolutions are also welcomed.

Please have your submissions to me no later than December 7. Thank you for your participation.

NOTE OF THANKS

The KEC Student Awards Day held this morning owes its success to the efforts of many, including the following: the KEC Student Awards Committee, the KEC Student Advisory Committee, the KEC Music Department and Mr. Terry Smith, Domco Food Services, the Students of the KEC Institutional Aide Program and Mrs. Noreen Green, the Ushers and Ceremony Assistants, Mrs. Mary Walker, Mr. Jim Humble, Ms. Winnie Cheung and the Financial Aid Department.

Grant Kelly

And a very special thanks to Grant Kelly who master-minded the whole event!

"... and so we present this award to Mr. Hardy for his faithful service as study-hall monitor for the entire school year."

LOTTERY WINNERS

Christine Akin (nee Harrison), a switchboard operator at Langara, was the lucky winner of the November 10 draw. Her number was 100.

Catherine Nishikawa, who is also a switchboard operator in Central Administration, is $1,000 richer as a result of the November 18 draw. She had the number 152.

CHRISTMAS TREE DECORATING

Once again this year the Music Department will be hosting a Christmas Tree Decorating Event, on December 5, at 12:30 in the second floor courtyard.

Join the V.C.C. Wind Ensemble, the Madrigal Singers, and our "special guests", for a half hour or so of carol singing and "making merry".

We plan to add to this year's event the service of hot chocolate and "mulled wine" to everyone in attendance.

If you have a class that wants to rehearse some carols in advance, please give Ted Greene a call at local 220, and he will be happy to supply you with copies of the words, and a cassette tape with the melodies.

Also, we welcome everyone on Campus to bring a decoration on that day to put on the tree. Remind your students to bring a decoration as well.

DON'T FORGET TO START THE CHRISTMAS SEASON THE RIGHT WAY!

ABESAP

ABESAP applications are invited from students intending to re-enroll for the coming term. Please encourage your students to apply now. Funds are limited and awards may be made to deserving candidates on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Technical workshops to assist applicants complete the ABESAP forms will be conducted in late November and early December. Please advise students to check the notice boards outside the Financial Aid Office.

A tape recording has been made in English to assist students who cannot attend these workshops. Copies of the tape will be available at the library and the Counselling Career Centre some time next week.

AUDIO VISUAL UPDATE IN THE LIBRARY

The Library has just received a remarkable comprehensive multi-media kit to be used as a resource in Adult Basic Education produced with the support of the provincial government. The kit, which takes its title from the accompanying video, "Introduction to the Writing Process", also contains an audio cassette on negotiating contracts and several significant literary theme units. These include Native Indian Literature, Outdoor Literature, science Fiction, Working, and Women's Literature. Writers and contributors Don Sawyer, Wendy Strachan, Pat Maika, and the poet, Tom Wayman, have created a very versatile, contemporary, and thought-provoking package that instructors might wish to preview. Please contact Amanda Palacios at local 435 for information or bookings.

We also wish to announce that we now have access to a copy of "The Miracle of Life" with clearance for classroom viewing. Two other productions of interest are Farley Mowat's "Never Cry Wolf" in video format and "Acid Rain: Requiem or Recover" on 16 mm. Again, Amanda Palacios at local 435 will be happy to accommodate bookings.
