MESSAGE FROM THE SWITCHBOARD

People calling in through the main switchboard should now hear an overflow message if the board is busy. We would like to monitor and hear if there are any problems with this system.

We would also ask that people use extra patience at this time when dealing with the switchboard and keep the operator informed of any changes. Since the volume of calls received at registration time is extremely high, there is bound to be the odd call that gets misdirected. If possible, please redirect the call. Thank you.

NEW WORKSHOP SERIES

Introduction to College Studies: Becoming a Master Student will be offered for the first time this fall. The intended outcome: students who demonstrate increased responsibility, eagerness to learn and participate, skill in getting their needs met at the college and likelihood of staying to take more courses.

The "Master Student" workshops have been incubating for two years, with the assistance of a ministry grant and many discussions with colleagues at conferences, workshops and meetings. The workshops represent a part of what seems to be a movement across North America toward general education addressing college success through a combination of life skills and study skills.

The workshop series is being offered free, as follows:

Master Student I (12 sessions):

M and W: 12:30 - 2:20 Room 3288 Sept 11 - Oct 23

HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

WEIGHT WATCHERS AT-WORK PROGRAM

HRD has had many enquiries as to a weight reduction program conducted on campus. As a result, a Weight Watchers representative will begin a "Pilot" 8-week program on September 21/89 at noon to 12:45 if sufficient numbers warrant. At the end of the 8 weeks, the session will simply "renew" for another period if enough people want to continue.

The cost is $60.00 per participant, payable in advance. We will accept cash, post-dated cheque, Visa and MasterCard. If the required minimum of 25 people is not reached all money will be returned. After the second week of the program, no new members are permitted to join the class. Members who cannot attend their At-Work meeting may simply take their Attendance book and attend any other outside meeting during that week. A schedule of all locations is provided.

The meeting procedure is a weigh-in followed by a meeting of approximately 30 minutes. Employees usually eat their lunch during the meeting time.

Please return the "interest" registration below by September 15. You will receive confirmation in writing when we have the required numbers.

This program is open to all employees at King Edward Campus, Continuing Education and Central Administration.

Call Diane at local 337 if you require more information.

TWO MUSIC COURSES FOR YOU

Why are so many Medieval composers called 'anonymous'?
Who called Bach a "dirty dog"?
Why shouldn't we dislike 20th century music?
Who or what really killed Mozart?

Answers to these and many more musical questions are available to KEC staff through the Music Department's "History 105" course. This is an introductory level music history course designed to develop listening and music vocabulary skills, covering every musical style from beebop to Bach, Kwakiutl chant to Quantz. The course runs for one semester starting September 12 on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 10:20 a.m. in the KEC Auditorium (2010).

Also open to the staff is the largest performing ensemble at VCC, the Willan Choir. The Choir, comprised of close to 100 student and community members, is an un-auditioned group welcoming anyone regardless of singing experience. The repertoire is generally 'classical' with two major performances per season accompanied by orchestra. The featured works this year are Magnificat by A. Vivaldi, and Puccini's Messa di Gloria, a setting of the mass with a distinctly operatic flavour. Rehearsals are on Tuesday evenings in the Auditorium (2010) of KEC, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m., commencing September 12. Contact Gerald van Wyck through the Music Department offices for further information about either course.

Conductor, Willan Choir,
