PAPER RECYCLING

Last week over 30 full boxes were picked up. If you have a box that was not collected, please leave me a note with:

- a) the number of boxes

I will call the pickup crew as soon as I have another 15 boxes listed (they will not come for fewer than 15 during the summer). Messages should be phoned to 463 or 472. HELP!!!

Does anyone have any spare storage space in their home? My arrangements, although arranged months ago, have just fallen through and I am desperate for a little bit of storage space. I would like to store some small pieces of furniture until approximately the third week in June 1991. If you can help me out, I would greatly appreciate hearing from you. Call me at extension 242. Thank you very much.

Do you have energy, enthusiasm and ideas?

We are seeking motivated people to serve on this year's United Way campaign committee. Representatives are needed from King Edward Campus, Continuing Education and Central Administration.

The Committee will begin meeting in late August to plan for a pledge drive culminating in an "event week" in late October. Current committee members are PAT MAY, chairperson; Jean Benetti, Karen Kelly, Korena Jang, Terry Smith, Gayle Thody.

The United Way of the Lower Mainland serves the Canadian Red Cross Society and 89 other member agencies and services. In 1988, the United Way of the Lower Mainland raised $12.92 million to benefit these agencies.

Please help. Call PAT MAY at 349 if you wish to join the committee or have fund raising ideas.

LIBRARY NEWS

Barcoding of the Library's collection is now complete. Thanks to all who managed to survive the eight-day Library closure and stay tuned for news regarding instruction on our new computerized catalogue.

A reminder that most library services will be suspended for end-of-term from August 27-31. Although the building will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., there will be no reference service or borrowing of materials. The student computer lab will also be closed. However, film and video booking and pickup will still be available for instructors.
