WORKSTUDY SPRING 1991

Students wishing to participate in this program must first apply through the Financial Aid Office. For the Spring '91 term, applications will be available from Financial Aid:

Monday, January 07, 1991 to Thursday, January 31, 1991

The deadline for applications is Thursday, January 31, 1991 (STUDENTS MUST REAPPLY EACH TERM TO BE CONSIDERED FOR WORKSTUDY.)

The Financial Aid Office will review all applicants and post the names of those who have been successful. Only the students who meet the attached criteria (see next page) and show financial need will qualify for workstudy positions.

All departments should plan to have work study positions in their area start after Friday, January 21, 1991. If there are any queries regarding the above, please contact the Financial Aid Office at local 720 or 728. Thank you.

WINE AND BEER CLUB - REMINDER OF NEXT MEETING, JANUARY 10

At the first meeting of the Wine and Beer Club early in December, it was decided that this club should have memberships and an executive. For those who were unable to attend that meeting, this is a reminder that there will be the opportunity to join this august group at our next meeting on January 10 in Room 2145 at 4:30 p.m.

Some highlights of the December meeting are:

- A beer brewing contest commencing in January - contest judging at a "social function" with tastings and a St. Patrick's Day theme on March 14.
- Guest speakers on brewing and wine making
- Tastings should be a part of each meeting
- Meetings should be held monthly to start with, and as appropriate to club needs once things are "fermenting".

The agenda for the January meeting is as follows:

WINE AND BEER CLUB JANUARY MEETING, ROOM 2145, 4:30 P.M. AGENDA

1. Welcome to new members
2. Review of the notes of the previous meeting (items #2 & #3 to be conducted concurrently)
3. TASTING ACTIVITIES
4. Club membership discussion
5. Executive structure and appointment/selection/election of ?
6. New business

New members are most welcome! See you there.

Sam Lewindon

THANK YOU

... to John Marshall and Frank Fornelli from Business and Computer studies for generously donating their time on several occasions to help out in the ICSC during December when Stephen Fryer was on holiday.

BRITISH COLUMBIA ASIA PACIFIC STUDENT AWARDS

Are you interested in the twenty-first century? The Ministry of Advanced Education, Training and Technology, through the British Columbia Centre for International Education, offers a variety of awards to public post-secondary students and scholars who wish to develop their understanding of the cultures, economics and languages of the Asia Pacific.

For scholars, the British Columbia Asia Pacific Scholars' Awards provide support for faculty and for professional staff interested in overseas opportunities.

For students, the British Columbia Asia Pacific Students' Awards are designed to support students who wish to attend rigorous formal programs of study in Asia Pacific countries.

To be eligible for either of these awards, applicants must be Canadian citizens or landed immigrants, and be permanent residents of British Columbia attending/working in a public post-secondary institution.

Criteria for BC Asia Pacific Student Awards

1. Is the proposed activity a legitimate and defensible use of public funds?
2. Will the program of study increase the students level of skill regarding the language, culture, etc., of an Asia Pacific country?
3. Is it a rigorous, formal program of study?
4. Do the courses the student is enroled in abroad relate to his/her program of study and/or career objectives?
5. If the student is currently registered in an academic program, is her/his G.P.A. above average?

Criteria for BC Asia Pacific Scholars' Awards

1. Is the overseas activity a legitimate and defensible use of public funds?
2. Will the host (overseas) institution benefit from the scholars' visit?
3. Will the home institution benefit from the scholars' overseas experience?
4. Will the individual benefit from his/her placement abroad?
5. Will the scholar improve his/her knowledge of languages, cultures, etc., from overseas experience?
6. Does this program of activity have the potential for initiating or strengthening an on-going relationship between institutions/organizations?

For further information, please contact Sarah Lucas at local 736.

ESL ACTION PLAN

UPDATE

Yes - the Action Plan process is still alive!!

PAST SUCCESS:

Thanks to the tremendous efforts of all the task forces and the Steering Committee members, the six Task Forces submitted their reports and recommendations early this year. Draft 1 was prepared. Despite a setback in April, the Steering Committee, in the early summer, met to begin to pull together individual reports and Draft 1 into a cohesive whole. This process is near completion.

THE TASK FORCE REPORTS:

The six Task Force reports will be available in their individual forms and will not just disappear into the synthesis in the report. One, the report of the Organization Task Force, has already been unofficially circulated to some areas due to a miscommunication. There are five more Task Force reports to form the total context.

EARLY ACTION:

A number of recommendations have already been acted upon. Orientation for new ESL instructors is one example. Another early success of the Action Plan is that many of the recommendations of the Task Forces were considered in and had influence on the process of workload profile changes at K.E.C.

WHAT NEXT?

- Draft 2, which pulls together the major recommendations of all the reports should be ready next month.
- All those who were Task Force members will have the opportunity to review Draft 2, make corrections and recommend changes.
- Based on input from the Task Forces, Draft 3 will be prepared and be given wide circulation to the ESL Division and other areas of the College.
- Division and College input will be encouraged.
- Draft 4 will be prepared to reflect this input and presented at an ESL Division Day.
- Implementation will begin (or continue, as some recommendations have already been implemented).
