HEALTH AND SAFETY

The KEC Health & Safety Committee would like to commend the Automotive Technician Department for their efforts in improving work conditions and making their shop a safer place to work and teach. We hope that other departments will follow their excellent example.

LIBRARY NEWS

Service Cuts

Recent cuts to budget allocations compel the Library to introduce reductions in service. A moratorium on the following services is effective immediately.

Textbook Purchase

We can no longer purchase any required course texts for regular or reserve loan.

Journal Routing

Routing to all campus faculty and staff will cease. Journals will still be available in the Library for browsing or loan. Note: the most current issue of any journal is for in-Library use only.

Acceptance of Donations

As a considerable portion of the cost of putting an item on the shelves involves cataloguing and processing, we can no longer accept personal donations of materials.

Our budget for replacing librarians and staff due to illness, vacations, conferences, etc. has also been cut, and pending final budget approval, it is possible that the Library will reduce hours of operation. You will be notified in advance of any changes.

Library Information Handouts

1-sheet handouts suitable for literacy and lower-level ESL students are now available. They describe basic library services and student responsibilities. They will be distributed automatically during class tours or you are welcome to pick some up at the Information Desk.

JAY'S RECIPE FOR MANURE TEA

In last week's edition of the KEC Times we referred to something called "manure tea" in the want ad section. Because of the many inquiries and questions regarding the Classified ad, we are publishing the recipe for your use.

1. take several shovels full of fresh manure (preferably the bovine variety) and put in a large container (see want ads)
2. fill the container with water, stir, then allow to sit for a few days
3. using a bucket, scoop out the liquid (tea) and pour on your favourite shrubs but remember to refill the barrel with water and stir

This tea will provide vigorous growth to your plants all season long. The remaining sludge can be dumped into your garden in the Fall to provide for next springs new growth.
