KEC AWARDS DAY

To all administrators, faculty, staff and students, reminder to mark your calendar for:

Thursday, November 26th from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

to attend the Awards Day Ceremony in the Auditorium. This is a very special event for students who have excelled academically. Please come to recognize the students and the scholarship donors.

ALL CAMPUS COUNCIL

The next meeting of the A.C.C. has been scheduled with Joan Horsley on Wednesday, December 2nd at 2:30 p.m. Would you please submit items for the agenda to me by Monday, November 16th. One suggestion is that we begin re-examining our mandate in view of the organizational changes currently taking place at the College.

Thank you.

MENTAL FITNESS CORNER

PUZZLE:

A lady goes into a hardware store to buy something for her house. She asks the clerk for the price and he replies, "The price of 1 is $2, the price of 30 is $4 and the price of 144 is $6." What is the lady buying?

TRIVIA:

Name the Scottish mathematician (1550 to 1617) who is credited with "doubling the life of the astronomer". (More trivia: He was also a science fiction writer of his time, predicting the use of tanks and submarines long before their introduction in WWI.)

Answers to last week's submissions:

PUZZLE:

Adding the first five digits with the last six digits of the result will produce the number that is being squared (i.e. $20408 = 122449 = 142857$).

"UNITY IN DIVERSITY" WEEK

The week of November 9th to 15th has been designated "Unity in Diversity" week by the Baha'i Community of Canada.

Since the inception of the Baha'i Faith almost 150 years ago, Baha'is around the world have been actively working to promote world unity. Over 100 years ago, Baha'u'llah, the Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i Faith first enunciated to the world leaders his vision of humanity as one people and of the earth as one homeland. His vision, dismissed out of hand by the world leaders of that time, has today become the focus of human hope and the most challenging issue before humanity.

The Baha'is of North Vancouver District would like to invite you to an opening ceremony to mark the start of the "Unity in Diversity" week. This will take place at:

Ballroom, Lonsdale Quay Hotel
Sunday, November 8 from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

and will consist of a slide show with narration and music, together with a brief presentation on the theme of "Unity in Diversity".

We warmly invite you to bring your associates, friends and family. Please contact us to let us know if you will be attending, as seating is limited.

For more information contact Baha'i information Centre at 731-8199.

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION DEGREE PROGRAM (ADULT EDUCATION ROUTE)

Vancouver Community College and the University of Alberta are pleased to announce that negotiations have been completed to link the British Columbia Provincial Instructor Diploma Program with a Bachelor of Education (BEd) degree in adult education.

This joint venture has come about as a result of an overwhelming demand from adult educators, the Society of Vocational Instructors post-secondary institutions and others in the province who wanted to see a career ladder in place for instructors in adult education institutions and programs.

There are some real advantages for instructors living in British Columbia in the University of Alberta degree.

- First, instructors receive one year of advanced standing for their training and experience.
- They receive credit for all of the courses in the Provincial Instructor Diploma and the Vancouver Community College or Diploma in Adult Education.
- They may take the non-education university transfer courses at any recognized community college or university and have them transferred for credit in the U of A degree.
- They can take all of the courses in the degree in British Columbia.
- The courses will be offered around the province on a basis similar to the Provincial Instructor Diploma Program. (weekends, evenings)

Courses in the degree will be offered at various locations around the province. During the first year of the program, the University of Alberta courses (Component 3) will be offered in Vancouver and the Provincial Instructor Diploma and Diploma in Adult Education courses (Component) will be offered in several locations based on interest in the program. Timetables for these courses are available from the Program Development and Staff Training Department, Vancouver Community College.

For more information, please see VCCFA Bulletin Board, 4th Floor Administration.

CAREER DIVISION GRADUATION AND AWARDS CEREMONY

On November 26th at 7:00 pm the Career Division will hold its 1992 Graduation and Awards Ceremony. This event, billed as one of the great excitement events of the year for students, will recognise over 200 graduates of Career Programs. The ceremony will be held in the auditorium and a "full house" is expected. Graduates, their families, special guests and college personnel will join in the reception held in the Staff and Faculty Lounge following the Graduation event.

INDONESIA: Slide Show and Talk

by Trevor Sawkins

1991 VCC Pacific Rim Scholarship Recipient

The VCC Pacific Rim Scholarship is awarded to a student at KEC and at Langara in alternate years. Trevor Sawkins was awarded the 1991 scholarship (KEC) to carry out a self-designed, 8-month project of language and culture studies in Indonesia, which he carried out between October, 1991 and May, 1992. Trevor's project consisted of three phases: studying the language and culture by living with an Indonesian family; more language and culture study through learning the art of Indonesian mask carving; and investigating Canadian development projects in Indonesia.

The Marriage of Bette and Boo a hilarious off-the-wall comedy written by Christopher Durang

directed by Pamela Hawthorn

November 18th to December 6th

STUDIO 58 announces a brilliant and funny dissection of marriage and the family in contemporary America, by master satirist Christopher Durang. The play is both devastatingly perceptive and wildly comic.

Bette and Boo are united in matrimony, surrounded by their beaming families. However, as time passes it becomes increasingly clear that things are not working out as hoped. The birth of their son is followed by a succession of stillborns, Boo takes to drink, and their odd families only add to the disharmony.

As usual, Durang takes a potentially tragic situation and discovers in it both humanity and wild humor.

CHRISTOPHER DURANG (Playwright), a graduate of the Yale School of Drama, has been writing for the theatre since 1971. His success as a playwright has been attributed to his sharp satiric sense and his ability to "wrap life's horrors in the primary colors of absurdist comedy". Besides THE MARRIAGE OF BETTE AND BOO, Durang's other successful comedies include BEYOND THERAPY, THE ACTOR'S NIGHTMARE and SISTER MARY IGNATIUS EXPLAINS IT ALL FOR YOU.

PAMELA HAWTHORN (Director) has been Manager, Creative Affairs, Western Office of Telefilm, since July, 1989. Prior to her Telefilm appointment Pamela was Artistic and Managing Director of the NEW PLAY CENTRE for 18 years. Educated at the Yale School of Drama, Ms. Hawthorn has directed numerous productions including NED AND JACK, THE UNVEILING and UNDER THE SKIN (New Play Centre), JACK SPRATT (Vancouver Playhouse), PRIVATE LIVES, OTHELLO (Globe Theatre, Regina), STARGAZING, TAMING OF THE SHREW (Stratford Festival) and for Studio 58, AH! WILDERNESS, THE ARISTOCRATS and LOVE'S NEAR MISS.
