TO EACH AND EVERY PERSON AT K.E.C.

I send my heartfelt thanks for your love, support and generosity. I am humbled and overwhelmed by the outpouring you have demonstrated by your hospital visits, cards, flowers and financial gift. No matter how bad a day got, I only needed to look around at all the flowers and cards or look up and see a familiar caring face to remind me of just how truly blessed I am.

Thank you all for sharing my grief and easing the pain. There are no words to adequately convey my gratitude to so many, so I will simply say thank you.

Developing Skills to Meet the Challenges

April 4 - 6, 1993

Because of the need for us all to make wise use of diminishing resources, and come up with creative ways of doing "more with less", this year's regional conference is offering some valuable skills you can take back to your institution and use with minimal effects on your budget.

Hosted by The University of Calgary

B.C. ASIA-PACIFIC AWARDS: Asia Pacific Grant Program

The Asia-Pacific Grant Program has been developed in addition to funding provided through the BC Asia-Pacific Awards for Scholars and Students.

The British Columbia Centre for International Education has received an allocation from the Ministry of Advanced Education, Training and Technology to fund the Asia-Pacific Grant program. The program has been established to enhance British Columbia public post-secondary students' understanding of the Asia-Pacific region and to contribute to the strengthening of linkage and exchange agreements between British Columbia and overseas institutions. The Asia-Pacific Grant program will provide small grants to enable student participation in an organized, related program of study at an overseas institution.

A budget will be set annually by the Ministry of Advanced Education, Training and Technology for the Asia Pacific Grant program. The program will be administered through the British Columbia Centre for International Education and the awards will be adjudicated by a committee representing the British Columbia post-secondary system.

The deadline dates for submission are
November 1 and February 1.

For details, please contact Cecily May,
International Education, 871-7178.

THEATRE AT LARGE

becomes

Magic Owl Theatre

Secret Space Theatre

Dear colleagues,

I hope you still remember THEATRE AT LARGE which I co-started 7 years ago with Claire Brown and Pauline Landberg for the purpose of encouraging young, local talent as well as bringing international plays, not normally performed here in Vancouver, to the local scene. We also came twice to KEC with A Thousand Miles of Railroad and a Moose (a cavalcade of Canadian history) and Action to the Word (an introduction to Shakespeare)

THEATRE AT LARGE's workshop series started with a series of Ibsen and Strindberg plays and continued with Russian, British, German and American plays. We produced a special series on Theatre in Revolution, featuring some plays by Brecht and Havel to mark the historic fall of the iron curtain in Europe. We have also had several full scale productions, some in cooperation with the Arts Club Theatre, The Fringe, UBC Somerset Studio, and recently the Novus Theatre.

We are no longer at large, since we have moved into our own theatre space on Main Street, the Secret Space Theatre. We have also had a name change and are now Magic Owl Theatre.

At present we are in the middle of a Four Play Season, which started with Sea Marks and The Accidental Death of an Anarchist.

I want to extend a special welcome to you all to our present production "the deliciously beautiful musical cabaret, saluting the immortal Kurt Weill",
BERLIN TO BROADWAY

at Secret Space Theatre, 4603 Main Street, 2nd floor, corner of 30th.

From March 25 to April 17, Tuesdays to Saturdays.

Tickets : 280 - 3000

Information : 877 - 1237

Future events : A workshop series on classical Greek plays, including lectures, discussions, symposia, audience participation and one full scale production. If you are interested in participating in a symposium on any one of these plays, let me know!

Thank you for your past interest and support and welcome to our musical cabaret !
