Noonhour film for February 19: ACID FROM HEAVEN

Some years ago there was a popular song which suggested that every time it rained, it rained pennies from heaven. Today's reality is that when it rains, it rains acid. By re-enacting a case study of a person whose income was cut off as a direct result of acid rain, this film provides in laymen's terms some basic information about a little-known form of pollution.

MORE FROM THE WELDING SCRAP BIN

"Few will have the greatness to bend history itself, but each of us can work to change a small portion of events, and in the total of those acts will be written the history of our generation."

Robert F. Kennedy

That's not my job!!

This is a story about four people named Somebody, Everybody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that somebody would do it.

Anybody could have done it but nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job.

Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it.

It ended up with Everybody blaming Somebody, when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

VANCOUVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

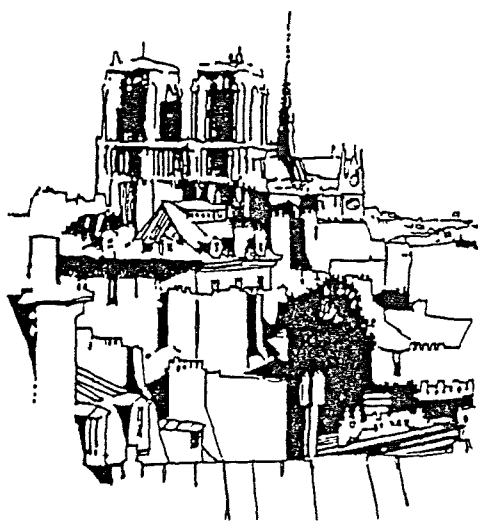

IF YOU NEED TO KNOW...

Escape the dreary winter! Vancouver Community College's Langara Campus presents "Cities of the Past," a free noon hour lecture series, Thursdays, through to March 21, at the Oakridge Auditorium, West 41st Ave. at Cambie St.

February 14 Val Sutherland takes you to "Versailles -The City Within a Palace." Then on February 21 it is on to "Eighteenth Century Bath" with Kathleen Quigley.

Bring a sandwich and tour the world! Admission is free.

Vancouver Community College's Board has approved a resolution whereby the college will offer English language training and high school completion to between 50 and 70 students from Hong Kong, beginning in September of this year. They will be accommodated in the already existing programs at the college's King Edward Campus. International Education Co-ordinator Norm Henderson emphasized that this move will not displace any Canadian students. In fact, he said, the revenue generated by the project would help maintain regular programs.

The Philippines Today: Problems, Challenges and Opportunities is the theme of a public lecture to be offered at Langara Campus Wednesday, February 13 at 7:30 p.m. The speaker is Ramon Cardenas, deputy director-general of the National Economic and Development Council. Mr. Cardenas is a senior bureaucrat and a former aide on President Marcos' staff. This talk is sponsored by the college's Pacific Rim Program and by the Canadian International Development Agency. Langara Campus is at 100 West 49th Ave. Admission to the lecture is free and there is ample parking on the campus.

For moms and dads! Help your children learn about the worlds around them. "Science in a Bucket" gives you buckets full of ideas for simple scientific experiments and projects for preschoolers. This workshop runs Saturday, February 16, 9:00 a.m. to noon. The cost is $20. For registration information call 875-8200.

Talking to Children: Communication and Self-Esteem. This Saturday morning workshop, March 2, helps you look at your own communication patterns and what they say to your children. Learn how to build a positive self-image. The cost is $20. For registration information call 875-8200.

A unique theatrical experience! Langara Campus's Studio 58 is presenting "Lark Rise" through February 24. This play takes you on a musical stroll through rural England during the last century. There's no seating. Bring a cushion and walk along with players as you savour country life. For reservations call 324-5227. The play runs Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8:00 p.m. and there is a Sunday Matinee at 2:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday tickets are $6, all other performances are 2 for 1.

This month Vancouver Community College bids farewell to its president of seven years, Tony Manera. Mr. Manera leaves the college to take up duties as vice-president of human resources for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Ottawa. His successor has not yet been named.

Is your group or association looking for something to spark its members, get them out of the winter doldrums? Vancouver Community College's speakers bureau could have the answer. We have dozens of lively, interesting speakers who can tackle topics from fitness and child rearing, to Canadian politics and the media. Give us a call at 875-1131, local 353.

Does an elegant evening out sound appealing? Try "J.J.'s" Vancouver Vocational Institute's dining room and cocktail lounge. Your dinner — perhaps Chateaubriand or rack of lamb — is prepared by chefs in training and served by students in our dining room and lounge service program. All preparation and service is done under the watchful eyes of instructors with many years experience. For first class dining at prices that won't injure your pocketbook, try "J.J.'s" in the heart of downtown at 250 West Pender St. For dinner reservations call 681-8111.
