Noonhour film for March 12: THE BUSINESS OF AGING

Investors are finding high profits in nursing homes for the aged. Profits are even higher when untrained personnel are used and "frills" are eliminated. The film confronts some fundamental questions about society's responsibility towards the elderly and chronically ill and what kinds of changes are needed to ensure higher standards of geriatric care.

A Pair of Gloves

A young man wished to purchase a birthday present for his sweetheart, so after consideration he decided to get a pair of gloves. Accompanied by his sister, he went to a Ready-to-Wear shop and bought a pair of gloves, while his sister bought a pair of panties.

In delivering the packages they became mixed, his sister getting the gloves and he the pair of panties. Without examining the contents of the package, he sent it to his sweetheart with this note.

Dearest:

This little gift is to show you that I have not forgotten your birthday. I chose these because I have noticed that you are not in the habit of wearing any when you go out in the evening. If it had not been for my sister I would have chosen longer ones with buttons, but she said the short ones are more in fashion.

These are a very delicate shade, but the lady I bought them from showed me a pair she had been wearing for three weeks and they were hardly soiled. I had the shop girl try them on and she looked very smart. How I wish I could have put them on you for the first time. No doubt many other men's hands will come in contact with them before I have the chance to see them again.

I did not know the size, yet I should be capable of judging more than anyone else. When you take them off, just blow in them before putting them away as they will naturally be a little damp from wearing.

Be sure to keep them on when cleaning them as they may shrink. I do hope you will like them and will wear them Friday evening.

With love,

Bill

P.S. Just think of how many time I will kiss the back of them during the coming year. The shop girl says the latest style is to wear them unbuttoned and hanging down.
