CARE AND SHARE

THANKS, AND AN EXTRA WISH OF GOOD CHEER FOR THIS SEASON TO ALL WHO HELPED IN SO MANY WAYS WITH THE CARE AND SHARE CAROLLING HAMPER PROJECT! WE ALSO WANT TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO GIVE A SPECIAL THANKS TO MIKE FOORT, SECURITY GUARD; HARRY CHEETHAM, WHO SO GRACIOUSLY GAVE US PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT FOR THE CAROLLING; THE STUDENTS OF THE PRINTING PRODUCTION DEPARTMENT AND POWER ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT; AND THE VANCOUVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE MUSIC DEPARTMENT AT KING EDWARD CAMPUS.

SO MANY PEOPLE HELPED IN SO MANY WAYS THAT IF WE WERE TO LIST EVERYONE, WE WOULD SURELY RUN OUT OF PAPER SPACE; BUT EVERYONE'S EFFORTS WERE VERY MUCH APPRECIATED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE. THE PROJECT WAS SUCCESSFUL BEYOND OUR WILDEST EXPECTATIONS! THE RECIPIENTS OF THE HAMPERS HAVE ASKED US TO EXPRESS THEIR THANKS AS WELL.

INSTRUCTORS!

Please book your films and videos now for the New Year (at least those to be used until the end of March '87). Many of our titles are popular among several departments at VVI as well as at other campuses and colleges.

The titles which you book from other sources (Langara, KEC, other colleges, NFB, etc.), are also in demand elsewhere. Please let us serve you first!

MERRY CHRISTMAS HAPPY NEW YEAR

The six ladies who were seated centre "stage" at the 1066 Restaurant on Thursday, December 11th, would like to extend a vote of thanks to Charise Bryan for organizing a lovely evening.

The highlights included the antics of a large party seated at another table who couldn't quite seem to agree as to the wearing of party hats. (We encouraged them by clapping and cheering as the last hat was put in place!) Also the generosity of D. Ho, who instructed the waiter to serve our table seconds of the Baked Alaska.

We do feel, however, that next year you should restrain the crazed woman in the red dress who brandished a camera (with flash no less) all over the place. There was something mentioned too about a LENS CAP. Although she disclaimed ownership, we still do wonder.....

Further evidence comes from the horoscope of at least three people at the table :

*VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Tonight's entertainment will be a welcome relief from the pressures of the past week.
Company parties are likely,
and you'll find yourself at your best.*
